Creative
reflections for the Epiphany Season

7.00 – 8.30pm
Tuesday 23 January 2018
Leicester Cathedral

'A cold coming we had of it...'

T.S. Eliot

Using T. S. Eliot's 'The Journey of the Magi', this event will explore the theme of travelling and homecoming through poetry, art, and personal reflection.

The evening will include an opportunity to respond creatively to the theme through writing and drawing, or simply to enjoy a time of quiet in the beautiful setting of Leicester Cathedral.

Event led by Dr Scott Freer and Dr Mary Ann Lund
(University of Leicester).

Free event. No booking required.
Everyone welcome, of all faiths or none.
